FROM OUR PASTOR, MSGR. STEVEN R. CAMP

Dear Parishioners,

Today in the First Reading the Prophet Amos condemns those who have become complacent with their wealth and are only seeking their own comfort. Amos challenges us not to ignore the poor and those who are in need around us. Throughout the Old Testament, the Lord reminds us that we who have earthly goods should be mindful of the poor and not ignore their needs. In the Gospel the Lord uses a great example in the rich man and Lazarus. It’s not that the rich man did anything wrong, it is that he didn’t do anything correct. Sometimes we are too caught up in ourselves to see the needs of others. It is a challenge that we all face in our lives each day.

Fall has arrived and our parish is bustling! On October 6th, we are looking forward to the kick off of our 2019-2020 Youth Ministry after the 5:30pm Mass and the 4th Annual Fall Festival. The Festival will be held in front of our Parish center, from 8am – 4pm where you can find Pumpkins, Cornstalks Apples & Cider. There will be fun activities for the whole family including face painting, balloons & pumpkin decorating! I hope to see you there.

Thanks to the Our Lady of Fatima Prayer Group, we are excited to share the addition of Our Lady of Fatima to our parish. She will be placed in a new outside grotto on the east side of the church. With the assistance of Parish Eagle Scouts, benches will be built and installed to honor Her. We will keep you updated, but we anticipate arrival in late October.

Please see the article from Fr. Bissex on the Archangels: Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael and Guardian Angels, whose feast days we are celebrating over the next week. Deacon Rorke has some important information on our RCIA program which meets every Sunday. If you have ever considered joining the Catholic faith or learning more about your Catholic Church, now is the time. All are welcome! The RCIA team will present some basic tenets of the faith, but most of the sessions will be devoted to answering your questions about Catholicism and helping you realize whether God is calling you into full communion with the Church.

We also welcome Seminarian Stephen Rooney to our parish for his Pastoral Year. We are thankful for his calling to ministry and the enthusiasm he brings to our parish and school.

Have a great week,
Msgr. Camp
Dear Parishioners,

Probably all of us are familiar with the idea of angels. Not only in the prayers of the Mass, but even in day-to-day conversations or experiences, references to angels are relatively commonplace. Like anything that we hear about often, we might become very used to the idea of angels without really understanding what we believe about them.

When we picture angels, we can fall into the “trap” of just picturing a bunch of chubby curly-haired baby figures, or winged figures playing harps. In fact, these ways of picturing angels (some of which go back quite a long way) are really just artistic ways of expressing things that we believe about angels. For example, angels are pictured with wings not because they actually physically fly like birds (they don’t) but to symbolize that the angels, being purely spiritual beings without bodies, are not limited in the way that human beings are. When they are pictured as babies, we are symbolizing their innocence and perfect purity. When they are pictured as soldiers, we are symbolizing their power and commitment to battling evil. Believing in angels does not mean we subscribe to a childish fantasy world of mythical creatures. It simply means that we believe that when God created the universe, He created a group of beings who are only spiritual, as opposed to us men and women, who are both material (with bodies) and spiritual (with souls). Finally, he created other animals, who are only material (with bodies), but without a spiritual element. (This is why, for example, we love our pets very much, but we do not try to baptize them.) In short, angels are a specific category of the groups of beings created by God the Father out of His generous love and desire to share His goodness.

If you listen closely to the prayers of the Mass (especially the “Preface”, the prayer the priest prays alone before we all pray “Holy, Holy, Holy”) you will often hear various groups of angels mentioned. Using passages from Scripture as well as information from the long history of the Catholic Church, we categorize angels into nine different groups: Seraphim, Cherubim, Thrones, Dominions, Virtues, Powers, Principalities, Archangels, and Angels. What we believe about angels (meaning any one of the nine groups, not just the last one) is that when God created them, he gave them each specific roles which they were to fulfill in their existence. Like men and women, angels had the option of choosing to say no to God, which is why believe some became evil. The various groups of angels, much like the various groups of the animal kingdom, are a way of categorizing what we understand of this element of God’s creation.

In our Church calendar, September 29th is the Feast of the Archangels: Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael. In 2019 it is passed over because Sunday takes priority. Soon after, on October 2nd, we celebrate the Feast of the Guardian Angels, those angels who have specifically been sent by God to watch over each one of us individually. In our lives as Catholics, we can always remember the importance of the angels, deepen our understanding of what they are, and express our gratitude to them for the ways they serve God and you and me as well.

Love and prayers,
Fr. Bissex

Welcome Seminarian Rooney

Hello Families of St Patrick’s, my name is Stephen Rooney, I come from a family of five children. I was born in Garden City and a member of St. Joseph’s parish. I attended Holy Trinity Diocesan High School, there I was very active in sports (football, track, and cross country) and with campus ministry. During the spring of my senior year I was offered a scholarship to run cross country for Ave Maria University. This was a dream come true. I am a very competitive person, and now I had the opportunity to compete on the college level.

However, I felt God was pulling my heart to consider the priesthood. In 2013 I graduated Holy Trinity and began my studies at St. John’s University while living at Cathedral Seminary to discern the priesthood. While in college seminary I had incredible experiences such as bicycling across the continental United States, teaching children the faith, homeless ministry, and growing in my relationship with the Lord.

In May of 2017 I graduated from both Cathedral Seminary and St. John’s University. I continued my seminary studies at St. Joseph’s Seminary in Dunwoodie, Yonkers. After spending two years at St. Joseph’s seminary, my classmates and myself were sent to parishes to learn how to be priests before returning for our last two years of seminary.

My brothers and sisters, I ask you to please teach me how to be a priest. Please teach me how to care, how to listen, how to love, and how to be a Father.

In Jesus and Mary,

Stephen Rooney

MUSIC MINISTRY

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON
All that you have done to us, O Lord,
you have done with true judgement,
for we have sinned against you
and not obeyed your commandments.
But give glory to your name
and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

...at the 10am Youth Choir Mass:
Offertory (Helen Litz, 1980)
O Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
O Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace, of Thy peace:
where there is doubt, let there be faith;
where there is darkness, let there be light;
where there is despair, let there be hope;
where there is sadness, let there be joy;
O Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace.

...at the 11:30am Chorale Mass:
Offertory (by Henry Purcell, 1659 - 1695)
The Lord is great and cannot worthily be praised.
He is more to be feared than all gods.
As for all the gods of the heathen, they are but idols,
but it is the Lord that made the heavens. Alleluia.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON
Remember your word to your servant, O Lord,
by which you have given me hope.
This is my comfort when I am brought low.

...at all other Masses:
Offertory (by Henry Purcell, 1659 - 1695)
The Lord is great and cannot worthily be praised.
He is more to be feared than all gods.
As for all the gods of the heathen, they are but idols,
but it is the Lord that made the heavens.
In God's word will I rejoice, in the Lord's word will I comfort.
Yea, in God have I put my trust,
I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.
